Fall Season Continues with Double Shots - November 10th

Help is still needed!

Scotch 'n' Soda's second offering this season is a double shot of theatre. Two shows, both written by Carnegie Mellon students, will be presented twice on November 10th in the Wherrett room, SKIBO, first at 8:00 pm and then at 9:30 pm. The shows, Every Woman's Right, written by Beth Cronise and directed by Laura Lind, and Boxed In, written by Nancy Gleason and directed by Jessica Bier, are currently in rehearsal.

Technical and production help is still needed for both shows. Anyone interested in helping in any aspect of theatre, from stage construction to lighting should contact the S'n'S office.

Some props still needed for Every Woman's Right are:

- A small dining table (seats 4)
- 4 chairs (kind of nice)
- 2 cocktail glasses
- A llama

If you have access to any of these items and can lend them to S'n'S, please contact the S'n'S office.

Spring Show 90'

Musicians and lyricists wanted!

Scotch 'n' Soda is working on its original Spring Show. We need musicians and lyricists to help write and perform musical passages for the student written adventure/comedy. Anyone interested in joining music director Jessie Ramey in the creative process should call S'n'S.

Tech Meetings

Tech meetings are scheduled for this week and next week. Please call the office for times and dates. A schedule should be posted on the door of the office for everything from lighting to stage work.

New Technical Director Elected

Joey Heafitz was elected by unanimous vote to the Scotch 'n' Soda Board to the position of Technical Director for the 1989-90 season. Please join us in welcoming him to the job!
